

WheneverWhereverTogether_Zebra

do you wanna come with me? you're the one that makes me believe do you wanna come and see?
I'm innocent but hard to beat comin' up down the road places I don't know oh how I'd like to go somewhere only we know

wheneverwherevertogether
whatevertheweatherdon'tmatter
bettertogetherforever

when everything's going down I'ma lift you up when there's no one 'round you can call me up uncertainty makes you feel all alone but I will care look at what we've grown would you come back inside? would you turn off the lights? nothing ever hit me like guess I just got hypnotized

whatevertheweatherdon'tmatter

I want you come along the way I had doubts but now I'm here to stay everytime you walk out of my place I feel hurt inside if you want to join me on the ride take a seat lets drive into the night oh the feelings I can not describe don't make them go away

bettertogetherforever
